The current school enrolment is around 450 students. Each year there is an approximate transiency of 10 - 30 % of students; i.e. new students enrolled and others transferred out. Extended overseas travel remains an increasing concern.

Hallam PS has continued to provide high-quality educational opportunities for students, commencing with the comprehensive Transition Program for pre-Prep students, cross-level learning tasks and activities and a Year 6/7 program to ease the transition of Year 6 students to a range of secondary settings.

Curriculum is based on the Department of Education and Training's Victorian Curriculum. It is overlaid with ideas and strategies from other programs, such as MAPPEN, which has proven successful with our students. The DiPL (Doorway into Practical Literacy) program, also supports the development of spelling, punctuation and grammar skills from Prep - 6, and continues to impact positively on students' achievements in Spelling, Writing, Grammar and Punctuation.

We have been a proud Stephanie Alexander Kitchen Garden Program for eight+ years. Our semester one SAKG program participants are: Years 3 – 6; with fortnightly sessions in the kitchen and garden. Semester two includes the Foundation to Year 2 students. Our kitchen specialist and garden specialist, have been present from the start of our program and continue to make it vibrant and engaging. Skills in Literacy and Numeracy are targeted in both the kitchen and the garden.

The Design and Digital Technologies curriculum has been introduced across all schools in Victoria. Hallam PS introduced this new curriculum through the addition of a new specialist subject. Students from Prep to Six take part in Design Space with a designated teacher, IT assistant and specifically designed area for the program.

Student voice is encouraged through participation in the Student Leadership Team, focus groups for policy change, and the formulation of classroom protocols. Students are also given the chance to make pertinent comment about school life and current issues by participating in the Attitudes to School Survey. The SLT run assemblies and meet each week to discuss school events and issues, as well as assist with fundraising events.

Opportunities are provided for students to develop leadership skills through a number of programs such as: Student Leadership Team, School Captains and Vice Captains, Enviro-Leaders and Sport Captains (Years 3/4). Monitors are chosen from Years 5/6 – office, gate, flag, etc. A number of traditions contribute to a stable yearly routine. These serve the community and the students by promoting enthusiasm and encouraging parental involvement at a variety of levels. Some examples of these popular events are the Special event Evenings, LitFest, Art Expo, Mini-Fete, School Concert, Year 6 Farewell and Education Week activities.

Parents are able to contribute to educational decision making through committees, including our hard working Parent Group and School Council. When undertaking policy reviews, publication of the draft policies in our school newsletter gives our parents genuine opportunities to provide feedback to any planned modifications. Our fortnightly newsletter, Hallam Happenings and our website, www.hallam-ps.vic.edu.au regularly inform and invite parent opinion and participation in school events. Competence in Literacy and Numeracy remains our constant teaching and learning focus. Students' success requires, however, shared responsibility. Completing SHARE reading, tables, spelling, specialist speech pathology programs and homework, requires regular parental support at home.

Absenteeism remains a major issue for some students, placing them at serious risk of academic under-achievement. Parents/Guardians are also reminded that the best outcomes for their child are achieved when the school and home can communicate constructively and work cooperatively together. Frequent absences and/or late arrivals can impact on student learning.

Community input for the initial Student Engagement Policy was originally sought through parent forums, student forums, School Council discussion, at Staff Meetings and in Wellbeing Team meetings. Policies are reviewed and comments gathered re: existing protocols for behaviour management, class rules, bullying legislation etc.

Philosophy

Your children...Our future!

Hallam Primary School's learning and teaching programs support and promote the principles and practice of Australian democracy, including a commitment to elected government, the rule of law, equal rights for all before the law, freedom of religion, freedom of speech and association and the values of openness and tolerance. The school's core values are learning for success, persistence, positive partnerships, mutual respect, trust and environmental awareness and, as a school community, we endeavour to apply these values in our everyday operations and interactions with each other and in the development of our programs and policies.

Hallam Primary School fosters a culture of child safety; school policies and procedures demonstrate zero tolerance of child abuse within all school environments and outside of school hours. The Principal and Assistant Principal lead the development of a culture of child safety by implementing strategies to protect all children from child abuse, and effectively responding to any allegations or incidents of child abuse.

Our Vision is to provide, in partnership with parents, a supportive and engaging learning environment that promotes the development of global learners with the necessary skills, knowledge and values to respond effectively to the demands of the 21st century.

Our Mission is to ensure a high-quality and coherent Foundation to Year 6 learning and development program to build the capability of every Hallam PS student.

School Values:

Values are rules that help us live our lives. They help us decide right from wrong, and tell us what to do in situations that occur daily in our lives. Values are important because they allow us to live more peacefully with others, and be better able to achieve whatever goals that we set for ourselves.

We are not born with values. We learn them from our families, parents, teachers and friends. We also develop our values from the media, such as television, newspapers, movies and the radio.

As a school community, Hallam PS will attempt to apply these values in our everyday operations and interactions with each other and in the development of our programs and policies:

- Learning for success (taking every opportunity to pursue excellence)
- Persistence (seeking to accomplish something worthwhile, trying hard and not giving up easily)
- Positive Partnerships (being part of a productive team)
- Mutual Respect (treating one another and the environment with consideration and courtesy)
- Trust (others can depend on you to be truthful and responsible)
- Environmental Awareness (that there are many things we can do to protect the natural environment)

Our statement of VALUES is available online at: www.hallam-ps.vic.edu.au.

Key responsibilities are to implement DET policy on school education for all primary school age students, and manage and drive continuous improvement in the delivery of primary education at Hallam PS.

Outcomes: The key responsibilities inform the outcomes that Hallam PS strives to achieve within its Foundation to Year 6 learning and development program. We expect that students have the best opportunities to learn for success and develop persistence, respect and trust. We expect that students have authentic opportunities to develop environmentally sustainable practices, maintain good health and build positive partnerships with peers, teachers and members of the broader community. We expect all students to acquire the basic skills for learning and life, to be engaged in, and benefiting from, schooling and to meet expected literacy and numeracy standards. Hallam PS expects that overall levels of literacy and numeracy show improvement.

Student well-being has a significant, collective focus across the school. Staff foster positive teacher-student relationships and an inclusive professional learning environment. Restorative Practices and Assertive Discipline underpin student management strategies, and student attendance is closely monitored. The use of corporal punishment at Hallam PS is prohibited.

Teaching personnel and non-teaching personnel provide, and support, a range of quality academic and skills-based programs structured around English literacy and numeracy competencies. Inter@act/UnitHero/MAPPEN online curriculum planning tools support teachers to plan units of inquiry. The learning environment is ICT rich with a computer to student ratio of 1:2. This supports online literacy and numeracy learning, digital learning, coding and robotics.

The acquisition of literacy and numeracy skills is supported by the use of effective summative, and formative, assessment tools, data recording and analysis, structured clinical instruction, purposeful tasks and inquiries, use of online learning programs and the provision of authentic feedback. Specialist programs in Science, Physical Education, Performance, Kitchen-Garden and LOTE Indonesian operate for Foundation to Year 6 students, with programs such as camping, swimming, school concert, mini-fete, lunchtime programs and excursions further supporting learning success beyond the classroom. Speech pathology, psychology, physiotherapy, visiting teacher for hearing impaired and occupational therapy services and aides provide further support for students requiring additional assistance with their learning.

- connect all Koorie students with a Koorie Engagement Support Officer
- all students in Out of Home Care will be appointed a Learning Mentor, have an Individual Learning Plan and will be referred to Student Support Services for an Educational Needs Assessment
- wellbeing and health staff will undertake health promotion and social skills development in response to needs identified by student wellbeing data, classroom teachers or other school staff each year
- staff will apply a trauma-informed approach to working with students who have experienced trauma

Individual

- Student Support Groups, see: <http://www.education.vic.gov.au/school/principals/spag/participation/pages/supportgroups.aspx>
- Individual Learning Plan and Behaviour Support Plan
- Program for Students with Disabilities
- referral to Assistant Principal/ Wellbeing and Student Support Services
- referral to ChildFirst, Headspace
- Lookout (OoHC students/Re-engagement program)

Hallam Primary School implements a range of strategies that support and promote individual engagement. These can include:

- building constructive relationships with students at risk or students who are vulnerable due to complex individual circumstances
- meeting with student and their parent/carer to talk about how best to help the student engage with school
- developing an Individual Learning Plan and/or a Behaviour Support Plan
- considering if any environmental changes need to be made, for example changing the classroom set up
- referring the student to:
 - school-based wellbeing supports
 - Student Support Services
 - Appropriate external supports such as council based youth and family services, other allied health professionals, headspace, child and adolescent mental health services or ChildFirst
 - Re-engagement programs such as Look Out

Where necessary the school will support the student's family to engage by:

- being responsive and sensitive to changes in the student's circumstances and health and wellbeing
- collaborating, where appropriate and with the support/consent of the student and their family, with any external allied health professionals, services or agencies that are supporting the student
- monitoring individual student attendance and developing an Attendance Improvement Plan in collaboration with the student and their family
- running regular Student Support Group meetings for all students:
 - with a disability
 - in Out of Home Care
 - and with other complex needs that require ongoing support and monitoring.

Attendance

We have an Attendance framework with solid protocols in place. (see Attendance Flowchart). In close partnership with the Administrative and Teaching staff, the AP/Wellbeing also monitors the attendance of students at Hallam PS. 'It's Not OK to Be Away' philosophy is reflected in our approach to absences. Appointments with students, parents/carers, regular communication and prompt follow-up of regular absences, incentive programs (charts, certificates, rewards, etc), Student Support Group meetings, etc. are all strategies we use to encourage regular attendance. Extended family travel overseas or interstate has resulted in some of our students missing significant amounts of schooling, in terms of months/terms. An Absence Learning Plan (ALP) is arranged for students who intend to be absent for an extended time. Parents are required to meet with the Principal/Assistant Principal prior to planned extended overseas holidays to explain why there is a need to remove a child from school during the school term. They are also required to sign off on a form that acknowledges that if end-of-year assessment standards are not met, a repeat year for the student may be considered for the following year. If the Absence Learning Plan is not completed and returned to school, the absences may be regarded as unapproved.

Restorative Practices/Assertive Discipline

Hallam Primary School draws upon Restorative Practices, and the Canter model of Assertive Discipline, as the basis for its whole school behaviour management procedures. At the commencement of each year, teachers negotiate a set of rules with their class, including consequences and rewards that are consistent with the whole school policy.

- These rules, consequences and rewards are to be prominently displayed in each classroom.
- A copy of the Class Contract brochure is sent home for discussion and to be signed by child and parent/s.
- Parents and teachers are expected to assist students to learn to appreciate their rights, and the rights of others.
- Restorative practices are used whole school. When an incident of inappropriate behaviour occurs, a restorative approach is used with the aim of resolving the conflict and mending relationships.
- Hallam Primary School has a philosophy of more frequently and consistently acknowledging students who are choosing responsible behaviours. Some of the positive recognition strategies include:
 - Verbal encouragement

- Classroom recognition and incentives (dojo points, prizes)
- Specialist Awards
- Special Days (free dress/sports days/discos/homework reward)
- Movie Nights for Year 5/6
- Whole school assembly acknowledgements
- Worker of the Week Nominations/Awards
- ICAS Awards
- Student Leadership opportunities
- Student Leadership Team

While it is the philosophy of Hallam Primary School to adopt a positive approach to behaviour management, students will experience logical consequences if they choose inappropriate or irresponsible behaviour that violates or infringes the rights of others. Procedures for dealing with inappropriate behaviour are usually sequential in nature and reflect the age and maturity level of students involved as well as the severity, or frequency of misdemeanours.

- Discussion, with the understanding that everyone has the right to be listened to
- Consultation firstly with team leader, then AP/Principal
- Restorative circle time with all concerned and/or
- Counselling for individuals in order to modify inappropriate behaviour
- Application of a whole school hierarchy of consequences as deemed appropriate:
 - Time out in Principal's Office
 - Detention (after school for 30 mins)
 - Suspension – playground, in-house, external
 - Expulsion
- Parent contact and Student Support Group meetings (to include: Management Support Plans, Behaviour Plans)
- Individual behaviour management agreements and plans for students who continually behave irresponsibly or inappropriately
- Explicit teaching of appropriate behaviours to relevant students (projects, role plays, Wellbeing sessions)
- Withdrawal from an activity, class, camp or excursion due to inappropriate behaviour and provided with an alternative educational setting within the school
- Interventions – PWO, SSSO personnel, external agencies and health professionals
- Suspension and Expulsion: for serious disciplinary measures we follow DET Engaging Schools are Effective Schools: Student Engagement Policy Guidelines 2009 developed in response to Ministerial Order No. 184.
(A Staged Response checklist for extreme breaches will be commenced.)

Bullying and Harassment

Definitions: Bullying is when someone, or a group of people, deliberately upset or hurt another person or damage their property, reputation or social acceptance on more than one occasion. There is an imbalance of power in incidents of bullying with the bully or bullies having more power at the time due to age, size, status or other reasons. Cyber bullying is a form of bullying which is carried out through an internet service such as email, chat room, discussion group, online social networking (eg. Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat etc), instant messaging or web pages. It can also include bullying through mobile phone technologies such as SMS. It may involve text or images (photos, drawings).

Category	Includes
Direct physical bullying	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • hitting, kicking, tripping, pinching and pushing or damaging property
Direct verbal bullying	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • name-calling, insults, teasing, intimidation, homophobic or racist remarks, or verbal abuse.

Category	Includes
Indirect bullying	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> action designed to harm someone's social reputation and/or cause humiliation. Indirect bullying includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> lying and spreading rumours playing nasty jokes to embarrass and humiliate mimicking encouraging others to socially exclude someone damaging someone's social reputation or social acceptance
Cyberbullying	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> direct verbal or indirect bullying behaviours using digital technologies. This includes harassment via a mobile phone, setting up a defamatory personal website or deliberately excluding someone from social networking spaces.

Mutual conflict involves an argument or disagreement between people with no imbalance of power. In incidents of mutual conflict, generally, both parties are upset and usually both want a resolution to the issue. Unresolved mutual conflict can develop into bullying if one of the parties targets the other repeatedly in retaliation.

Social rejection or dislike is not bullying unless it involves deliberate and repeated attempts to cause distress, exclude or create dislike by others.

Single-episode acts of harassment, nastiness or physical aggression are not the same as bullying. If someone is verbally abused or pushed on one occasion, they are not being bullied. Harassment, nastiness or physical aggression that is directed towards many different people is not the same as bullying. However, single episodes of harassment, nastiness or physical aggression are not acceptable behaviours at our school.

Many distressing behaviours may not constitute bullying even though they are unpleasant. Students who are involved in or who witness any distressing behaviours of concern are encouraged to report their concerns to school staff.

It is important for the school to provide a safe and friendly environment for students and staff and to encourage care, courtesy and respect for others. All persons have a legal right to protection from harassment under the Commonwealth Sex Discrimination Act and the Victorian Equal Opportunity Act.

If a student sees another person being harassed or bullied they should tell the person that they witnessed the incident and advise them to report it to an appropriate person. However, if a friend is harassing another person, they should let them know that their behaviour is unacceptable. Bystanders who do nothing to stop bullying may be contributing to the problem by providing an audience for the bully.

Harassment is usually directed at a person because of their gender, race, creed or abilities. It can be subtle or explicit.

Subtle: (The most common)

They include:

- Offensive staring and leering.
- Unwanted comments about physical appearance and sexual preference.
- Racist or smutty comments or jokes.
- Questions about another's sexual activity.
- Persistent comments about a person's private life or family.
- Physical contact e.g. purposely brushing up against another's body
- Offensive name calling.

Explicit: (obvious)

They include:

- Grabbing, aggressive hitting, pinching and shoving etc.
- Unwelcome patting, touching, embracing.
- Repeated requests for dates, especially after refusal.

- Offensive gestures, jokes, comments, letters, phone calls or e-mail.
- Sexually and/or racially provocative remarks.
- Displays of sexually graphic material– pornography.
- Requests for sexual favours.
- Extreme forms of sexual harassment will lead to criminal prosecution.

Bullying, including cyber bullying, is seen as a serious breach of the Student Engagement Policy and will not be tolerated in any form. Students will be made aware of the provisions of the Racial and Religious Tolerance Act 2001 (which makes it unlawful for students to vilify other students on the grounds of race or religion), and the Charter of Human Rights.

We are proud to be an eSmart school. Our parents/carers and our students sign an Acceptable Use Policy where there is a common and agreed approach to the safe and smart use of mobile and non-mobile digital technologies. Students need to sign any devices in at the office each morning. Students do NOT access Facebook at school. There is a whole school approach to behaviour management in regards to expected student behaviours. Staff are guided to quick, sensitive and consistent responses to negative behaviours of all kinds, including in the uses of technology to threaten or bully.

Rights

Equal Opportunity

The Equal Opportunity Act 1995 sets out the types or grounds of discrimination that are unlawful and aims to promote community recognition and acceptance of the equality of men and women, and the equality of people of all races, regardless of their religious or political convictions, their impairments, socio-economic status or their age.

The Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006

The Charter sets out a list of 20 rights that reflect the following four basic principles:

- Freedom
- Equality
- Respect
- Dignity.

The Charter outlines a vision of human rights for all Victorians. The Charter affirms that all people are born free and equal in dignity and rights. While the Charter demands equality for all, it also emphasises the value of difference. The Charter requires public authorities, including government schools and their employees, to act compatibly with human rights and to consider human rights when making decisions and delivering services.

It is important to understand that with human rights comes a responsibility to respect each other.

All DET employees must act compatibly with the Charter and give proper consideration to human rights when making decisions. Everyone should:

- Encourage compliance with the Charter
- Support others to act compatibly with the Charter
- Respect and promote human rights.

Students with disabilities

The Disability Standards for Education 2005 clarify and make more explicit the obligations on schools and the rights of students under the Disability Discrimination Act 1992. The standards cover enrolment, participation, curriculum development, student support services, and harassment and victimisation.

An education provider must make 'reasonable adjustments' to accommodate a student with a disability.

An adjustment is a measure or action taken to assist a student with a disability to participate in education and training on the same basis as other students.

An adjustment is reasonable if it does this while taking into account the student's learning needs and balancing the interests of all parties affected, including those of the student with the disability, the education provider, staff and other students.

In determining whether an adjustment is reasonable, an education provider should take into account information about:

- The nature of the student's disability
- His or her preferred adjustment
- Any adjustments that have been provided previously
- Any recommended or alternative adjustments.

The Program for Students with Disabilities (PSD) oversees funded students who have challenges accessing the mainstream curriculum. The AP/PWO, in close partnership with the Principal, facilitates the PSD, and arranges applications and co-ordinates Student Support Group meetings. (SSG).

Rights and Responsibilities:

All members of our school community have a right to experience a safe and supportive school environment. We expect that all students, staff, parents and carers treat each other with respect and dignity. Our school's Statement of Values highlights the rights and responsibilities of members of our community.

Students have the right to:

- participate fully in their education
- feel safe, secure and happy at school
- learn in an environment free from bullying, harassment, violence, discrimination or intimidation
- express their ideas, feelings and concerns.

Students have the responsibility to:

- participate fully in their educational program
- display positive behaviours that demonstrate respect for themselves, their peers, their teachers and members of the school community
- respect the right of others to learn.

Students who may have a complaint or concern about something that has happened at school are encouraged to speak to their parents or carers and approach a trusted teacher or a member of the school leadership team.

Within our school environs, students will achieve this by:

- Being taught how to behave responsibly to ensure the rights of all community members are respected
- Learning the value of choosing to behave responsibly by being consistently recognised for responsible behaviour
- Being supported to express their experience of a breach of their rights and in turn, being required to respect other students' views, during the resolution of an issue (Restorative Practices)
- Experiencing logical consequences when they choose to behave irresponsibly (Assertive Discipline)
