School Profile Statement

Hallam Primary School was established in 1859 and is one of Victoria's oldest primary schools. Hallam PS today is situated within one of the most culturally diverse communities in the City of Casey. The school community includes almost forty languages other than English. Enrolment is influenced by high student mobility. The learning environment includes a mixture of contemporary and upgraded learning spaces. The school's grounds also accommodate Hallam Kindergarten and Maternal Health services (soon to be Hallam Kindergarten (run by ELV) and adjoin the Hallam Secondary College.

Hallam Primary School provides an inclusive learning environment. There is a positive school culture where staff work collaboratively, develop learning partnerships, and take collective responsibility for students' learning and wellbeing. Many students enter the school developmentally vulnerable but make progressive gains through to Year 6. These gains are obtained through a structured learning environment that balances explicit teaching with inquiry and offers a range of experiences to enrich students' learning.

Hallam Primary School has a commitment to rigorous assessment and moderation that supports differentiation of students' learning and provides clear evidence of the school's ability to continually 'value add' to students' learning. Multiple data sources provide evidence of consistent and appropriate growth at each year level. Students from Years 3 to 6 also engage with achievement data, in consultation with their class teacher, to develop Formative Assessment plans.

Tudio and Inquisitive curriculum units provide scope to engage students in socially relevant programs, while the ICT-rich learning environment promotes expanding digital learning capacity from Years Foundation-6. The Orton-Gillingham approach to literacy learning is being implemented across the school. A more developmental focus is implemented with Mathematics. Hallam Primary School supports a culture of shared professional learning (including peer observation and coaching), sufficient time to explore and adapt, and appropriately timed implementation. MiniLit and MacqLit programs support students by providing intensive small group thrice weekly sessions of explicit teaching of Literacy skills. The Tutor Learning Initiative (TLI) also assists students who require additional help.

The school provides several specialised learning opportunities; STEM – Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics (coding, robotics, VR, CAD, 3D printing, etc.) Performance Arts, Stephanie Alexander Kitchen and Garden Program, Physical Education, Visual Arts, and Auslan. Hallam Primary School continues to build upon successful, existing programs and the development of teacher capacity to provide a guaranteed and viable curriculum for continuing improvement. There is a focus on the individual learning at their point of need, and the use of data to differentiate learning, further enhancing students' engagement and attendance.

Hallam Primary School caters for students' wellbeing by implementing whole school programs around behaviour management using Restorative Practices and Assertive Discipline. The Assistant Principal's role is comprehensively allocated to student wellbeing, supporting efficient coordination of Allied Health personnel and the work of Education Support staff to further strengthen wellbeing outcomes. The school has effective student management protocols, with the perception of a 'safe and secure environment' strongly endorsed by student leaders, and a focus on student leadership enabling numerous students to undertake various roles and responsibilities.

The school manages workforce planning to maximise provision of core learning areas and staffing for specialist teaching and student support, including the contracting of speech and occupational therapists, psychologists and an art therapist. A highly effective, distributed leadership model is evident through the collegiate, collaborative, and effective whole school approaches. Associated with this is an experienced and effective leadership team that underpins the positive learning environment at Hallam Primary School. School Council allocates resources for ongoing professional learning, comprehensive learning and teaching materials and the cyclic improvement of digital technologies, which successfully impacts upon teacher capacity and improved student outcomes.

Hallam Primary School continues to promote its values of learning for success, persistence, positive partnerships, mutual respect, trust and environmental awareness as key components of future school planning and development. There is a commitment by all staff to improving learning and teaching, and maximising students' learning growth.

Student voice is encouraged through participation in the Student Leadership Team, focus groups for policy change, and the formulation of classroom protocols. Students are also given the chance to make pertinent comment about school life and current issues by participating in the Attitudes to School Survey. The SLT run assemblies and meet each week to discuss school events and issues, as well as assist with fundraising events. The SLT facilitate school assemblies, engage students in decision making throughout the school (eg choice of lining up music, fundraising suggestions, uniform design for Yr 6, attendance at Leadership functions etc.

Opportunities are provided for students to develop leadership skills through a number of programs such as: Student Leadership Team and Sport Captains (Years 3/4). Monitors are chosen from Years 5/6 – Office, Gate, Flag, etc. Several events contribute to the yearly routine. These serve students and the community by promoting engagement and encouraging parental involvement at various levels. Some events have included: Open Days, special event evenings, Year 6 Farewell and Education Week activities.

Parents can contribute to decision making through School Council. When undertaking policy reviews, publication of draft policies is included in our school newsletter providing parents with opportunities to provide feedback to planned modifications. The fortnightly newsletter, Hallam Happenings, and school website, www.hallam-ps.vic.edu.au regularly inform and invite parent opinion and encourage participation in school events. Competence in Literacy and Numeracy is the constant teaching and learning focus. Students' success, however, requires shared responsibility. Completing SHARE reading, tables, spelling, specialist speech pathology programs and homework requires regular parental support at home.

Absenteeism remains a major issue for some students, placing them at serious risk of academic underachievement. Parents/Guardians are reminded that the best outcomes for their child are achieved when the school and home can communicate constructively and work cooperatively together. Frequent absences and/or late arrivals can impact student learning efficacy.

Community input for the initial Student Engagement Policy was originally sought through parent forums, student forums, School Council discussion, at Staff meetings and in Wellbeing Team meetings. Policies are reviewed and comments gathered about existing protocols for behaviour management, class rules, bullying legislation, etc.

School values, philosophy and vision

Your children...Our future!

Hallam Primary School's learning and teaching programs support and promote the principles and practice of Australian democracy, including a commitment to elected government, the rule of law, equal rights for all before the law, freedom of religion, freedom of speech and association and the values of openness and tolerance. The school's core values are learning for success, persistence, positive partnerships, mutual respect, trust and environmental awareness and, as a school community, we endeavour to apply these values in our everyday operations and interactions with each other and in the development of our programs and policies.

Hallam Primary School fosters a culture of child safety; school policies and procedures demonstrate zero tolerance of child abuse within all school environments and outside of school hours. The Principal and Assistant Principal lead the development of a culture of child safety by implementing strategies to protect all children from child abuse, and effectively responding to any allegations or incidents of child abuse.

Our Vision is to provide, in partnership with parents, a supportive and engaging learning environment that promotes the development of global learners with the necessary skills, knowledge and values to respond effectively to the demands of an increasingly complex, global community.

Our Mission is to ensure a high-quality and coherent Foundation to Year 6 learning and development program to build the capability of every Hallam PS student.

School Values: Values help us live our lives. They help us decide right from wrong and inform us about what to do in situations that occur daily in our lives. Values are important because they allow us to live more peacefully with others and be better able to achieve whatever goals that we set for ourselves.

We are not born with values. We learn them from our families, parents, teachers and friends. We also develop our values from the media, such as television, social media apps, newspapers, movies and the radio.

As a school community, Hallam PS will attempt to apply these values in our everyday operations and interactions with each other and in the development of our programs and policies:

- Learning for success (taking every opportunity to pursue excellence)
- Persistence (seeking to accomplish something worthwhile, trying hard and not giving up easily)
- Positive Partnerships (being part of a productive team)
- Mutual Respect (treating one another and the environment with consideration and courtesy)
- Trust (others can depend on you to be truthful and responsible)
- Environmental Awareness (that there are many things we can do to protect the natural environment)

Our Statement of Values is available online at: www.hallam-ps.vic.edu.au.

Whole School Engagement

Hallam Primary School has developed a range of strategies to promote engagement, an inclusive and safe environment, positive behaviour, and respectful relationships for all students in our school. - building constructive relationships with students at risk or students who are vulnerable due to complex individual circumstances
- meeting with a student and their parent/carer to talk about how best to help the student engage with school
- developing an Individual Learning Plan, a Behaviour Support Plan, Health Support Plan, Toileting Plan etc... as needed
- considering if any environmental changes need to be made, for example changing the classroom set up (Soundfield System for hearing impaired students, providing larger computer screens, ergonomic furniture etc)
- referring the student to:

Identifying students in need of support

Hallam Primary School is committed to providing the necessary strategies to ensure our students are supported intellectually, emotionally and socially. The Student Wellbeing team plays a significant role in developing and implementing strategies to help identify students in need of support and enhance student wellbeing. Hallam Primary School will utilise the following information and tools to identify students in need of extra emotional, social or educational support:

- personal, health and learning information gathered upon enrolment and while the student is enrolled
- attendance records
- academic performance
- observations by school staff such as changes in engagement, behaviour, self-care, social connectedness and motivation
- attendance, detention, and suspension data
- engagement with families
- self-referrals or referrals from peers

Rights and Responsibilities:

All members of our school community have a right to experience a safe and supportive school environment. We expect that all students, staff, parents and carers treat each other with respect and dignity. Our school's Statement of Values highlights the rights and responsibilities of members of our community.

Students have the right to:

- participate fully in their education
- feel safe, secure, and happy at school
- learn in an environment free from bullying, harassment, violence, racism, discrimination, or intimidation
- express their ideas, feelings, and concerns.

Students have the responsibility to:

- participate fully in their educational program
- display positive behaviours that demonstrate respect for themselves, their peers, their teachers and members of the school community
- respect the right of others to learn.

Students who may have a complaint or concern about something that has happened at school are encouraged to speak to their parents or carers and approach a trusted teacher or a member of the school leadership team.

Further information about raising a complaint or concern is available in our Complaints policy \(website\).

Within our school environs, students will achieve this by:

- Being taught how to behave responsibly to ensure the rights of all community members are respected
- Learning the value of choosing to behave responsibly by being recognised for responsible behaviour
- Being supported to express their experience of a breach of their rights and, in turn, being required to respect other students' views during the resolution of an issue (Restorative Practices)
- Experiencing logical consequences when they choose to behave irresponsibly (Assertive Discipline)

Rights

Equal Opportunity

The Equal Opportunity Act 1995 sets out the types or grounds of discrimination that are unlawful and aims to promote community recognition and acceptance of the equality of men and women, and the equality of people of all races, regardless of their religious or political convictions, their impairments, socio-economic status or their age.

The Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006

The Charter sets out a list of 20 rights that reflect the following four basic principles:

- Freedom
- Equality
- Respect
- Dignity

The Charter outlines a vision of human rights for all Victorians. The Charter affirms that all people are born free and equal in dignity and rights. While the Charter demands equality for all, it also emphasises the value of difference. The Charter requires public authorities, including government schools and their employees, to act compatibly with human rights and to consider human rights when making decisions and delivering services.

It is important to understand that with human rights comes a responsibility to respect each other.

All DET employees must act compatibly with the Charter and consider human rights when making decisions. Everyone should:

- Encourage compliance with the Charter
- Support others to act compatibly with the Charter
- Respect and promote human rights.

Students with disabilities

The Disability Standards for Education 2005 clarify and make more explicit the obligations on schools and the rights of students under the Disability Discrimination Act 1992. The standards cover enrolment, participation, curriculum development, student support services, and harassment and victimisation.

An education provider must make 'reasonable adjustments' to accommodate a student with a disability. An adjustment is a measure or action taken to assist a student with a disability to participate in education and training on the same basis as other students.

An adjustment is reasonable if it does this while taking into account the student's learning needs and balancing the interests of all parties affected, including those of the student with the disability, the education provider, staff and other students.

In determining whether an adjustment is reasonable, an education provider should consider information about:

- The nature of the student's disability
- His or her preferred adjustment
- Any adjustments that have been provided previously
- Any recommended or alternative adjustments.

The Disability Inclusion Program for students with disabilities (previously PSD) supports students who have challenges accessing the mainstream curriculum. The DI Learning Specialist, in close partnership with the AP/principal, facilitates the DIP, arranging applications, liaison with DI Facilitators to arrange Profile Meetings and co-ordinating Student Support Group meetings.

Attendance

Hallam Primary School has an Attendance framework with consistent protocols in place (see Attendance Flowchart). In close partnership with the Administrative and Teaching staff, the AP/Wellbeing also monitors the attendance of students. 'It's Not OK to Be Away' philosophy is reflected in our approach to absences. Appointments with students, parents/carers, regular communication and prompt follow-up of regular absences, incentive programs (charts, certificates, rewards, etc), Student Support Group meetings, etc. are all strategies we use to encourage regular attendance. Extended family travel overseas or interstate has resulted in some of our students missing significant amounts of schooling, in terms of months/terms. An Absence Learning Plan (ALP) is arranged for students who intend to be absent for an extended time. Parents are required to meet with the Principal/Assistant Principal prior to planned extended overseas holidays to explain why there is a need to remove a child from school during the school term. They are also required to sign off on a form that acknowledges that if end-of-year assessment standards are not met, a repeat year for the student may be considered. If the Absence Learning Plan is not completed and returned to school, the absences may be regarded as unapproved.

Student behavioural expectations and management - Restorative Practices/Assertive Discipline

Hallam Primary School draws upon Restorative Practices, and the Canter model of Assertive Discipline, as the basis for its whole school behaviour management procedures. At the commencement of each year, teachers negotiate a set of rules with their class, including consequences and rewards that are consistent with the whole school policy.

- These rules, consequences and rewards are to be prominently displayed in each classroom.
- A copy of the Class Contract brochure is sent home for discussion and to be signed by child and parent/s.
- Parents and teachers are expected to assist students to learn to appreciate their rights, and the rights of others.
- Restorative practices are used whole school. When an incident of inappropriate behaviour occurs, a restorative approach is used with the aim of resolving the conflict and mending relationships.
- Hallam Primary School has a philosophy of more frequently and consistently acknowledging students who are choosing responsible behaviours. Some of the positive recognition strategies include:
 - Verbal encouragement
 - Classroom recognition and incentives (dojo points, prizes)
 - Specialist Awards
 - Special Days (free dress/sports days/discos/homework reward)
 - Movie Nights for Year 5/6
 - Whole school assembly acknowledgements
 - Worker of the Week Nominations/Awards
 - Student Leadership opportunities
 - Student Leadership Team

Violence, bullying, and other offensive and harmful behaviours such as racism, harassment and discrimination will not be tolerated and will be managed in accordance with this policy. Bullying will be managed in accordance with our Bullying Prevention Policy.

When a student acts in breach of the behaviour standards of our school community, Hallam PS will institute a staged response, consistent with the Department's policies on behaviour, discipline and student wellbeing and engagement. Where appropriate, parents will be informed about the inappropriate behaviour and the disciplinary action taken by teachers and other school staff. Staff will enter chronicle comments on Compass to ensure that information is shared.

Our school considers, explores and implements positive and non-punitive interventions to support student behaviour before considering disciplinary measures such as detention, withdrawal of privileges or withdrawal from class. Disciplinary measures may be used as part of a staged response to inappropriate behaviour in combination with other engagement and support strategies to ensure the factors that may have contributed to the student's behaviour are identified and addressed. Disciplinary measures at our school will be applied fairly and consistently. Students will always be provided with an opportunity to be heard.

Disciplinary measures that may be applied include:

- warning a student that their behaviour is inappropriate
- teacher controlled consequences such as moving a student in a classroom or other reasonable and proportionate responses to misbehaviour
- withdrawal of privileges
- referral to the Year Level Team Leader
- restorative practices
- projects to be completed during lunchtimes
- detentions
- behaviour support and intervention meetings
- suspension
- expulsion

Suspension, expulsion and restrictive interventions are measures of last resort and may only be used in situations consistent with Department policy, available at:

- <https://www2.education.vic.gov.au/pal/suspensions/policy>
- <https://www2.education.vic.gov.au/pal/expulsions/policy>
- <https://www2.education.vic.gov.au/pal/restraint-seclusion/policy>

In line with Ministerial Order 1125, no student aged 8 or younger will be expelled without the approval of the Secretary of the Department of Education and Training. The principal is responsible for ensuring all suspensions and expulsions are recorded on CASES21.

While it is the philosophy of Hallam Primary School to adopt a positive approach to behaviour management, students will experience logical consequences if they choose inappropriate or irresponsible behaviour that violates or infringes the rights of others. Procedures for dealing with inappropriate behaviour are usually sequential in nature and reflect the age and maturity level of students involved as well as the severity, or frequency of misdemeanours.

- Discussion, with the understanding that everyone has the right to be listened to
- Consultation firstly with Team Leader, then AP/Principal
- Restorative circle time with all concerned and/or
- Counselling for individuals to modify inappropriate behaviour
- Application of a whole school hierarchy of consequences as deemed appropriate:
 - Time Out in Principal's Office
 - Detention (after school for 30 mins)
 - Suspension – playground, in-house, external
 - Expulsion
- Parent contact and Student Support Group meetings (to include: Management Support Plans, Behaviour Plans)
- Individual behaviour management agreements and plans for students who continually behave irresponsibly or inappropriately (projects to address behaviours, eSmart digital licence for cyberbullying concerns)
- Explicit teaching of appropriate behaviours to relevant students (projects, role plays, Wellbeing sessions)
- Withdrawal from an activity, class, camp, or excursion due to inappropriate behaviour and provided with an alternative educational setting within the school

- Interventions – AP, DI Leader, SSSO personnel, external agencies and health professionals
- Suspension and Expulsion: for serious disciplinary measures we follow DET Engaging Schools are Effective Schools: Student Engagement Policy Guidelines 2009 developed in response to Ministerial Order No. 184. (A Staged Response checklist for extreme breaches will be commenced.)

Corporal punishment is prohibited in our school and will not be used in any circumstance at our school.

Engaging with families

Hallam PS values the input of parents and carers, and we will strive to support families to engage in their child's learning and build their capacity as active learners. We aim to be partners in learning with parents and carers in our school community.

We work hard to create successful partnerships with parents and carers by:

- ensuring that all parents have access to our school policies and procedures, available on our school website
- maintaining an open, respectful line of communication between parents and staff, supported by our Communicating with School Staff policy.
- providing parent volunteer opportunities so that families can contribute to school activities
- involving families with homework and other curriculum-related activities
- involving families in school decision making
- coordinating resources and services from the community for families
- including families in Student Support Groups, and developing individual plans for students.

Bullying and Harassment

Definitions: Bullying is when someone, or a group of people, deliberately upset or hurt another person or damage their property, reputation or social acceptance on more than one occasion. There is an imbalance of power in incidents of bullying with the bully or bullies having more power at the time due to age, size, status or other reasons.

Cyber bullying is a form of bullying which is carried out through an internet service such as email, chat room, discussion group, online social networking (eg. Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat etc.), instant messaging or web pages. It can also include bullying through mobile phone technologies such as SMS. It may involve text or images (photos, drawings).

Category	Includes
Direct physical bullying	• hitting, kicking, tripping, pinching and pushing or damaging property
Direct verbal bullying	• name-calling, insults, teasing, intimidation, homophobic or racist remarks, or verbal abuse.
Indirect bullying	• action designed to harm someone's social reputation and/or cause humiliation. Indirect bullying includes: lying and spreading rumours playing nasty jokes to embarrass and humiliate mimicking

Category	Includes
	encouraging others to socially exclude someone damaging someone's social reputation or social acceptance
Cyberbullying	direct verbal or indirect bullying behaviours using digital technologies. This includes harassment via a mobile phone, setting up a defamatory personal website or deliberately excluding someone from social networking spaces.

Mutual conflict involves an argument or disagreement between people with no imbalance of power. In incidents of mutual conflict, generally, both parties are upset and usually both want a resolution to the issue. Unresolved mutual conflict can develop into bullying if one of the parties targets the other repeatedly in retaliation.

Social rejection or dislike is not bullying unless it involves deliberate and repeated attempts to cause distress, exclude or create dislike by others.

Single-episode acts of harassment, nastiness or physical aggression are not the same as bullying. If someone is verbally abused or pushed on one occasion, they are not being bullied. Harassment, nastiness or physical aggression that is directed towards many different people is not the same as bullying. However, single episodes of harassment, nastiness or physical aggression are not acceptable behaviours at our school.

Many distressing behaviours may not constitute bullying even though they are unpleasant. Students who are involved in or who witness any distressing behaviours of concern are encouraged to report their concerns to school staff.

It is important for the school to provide a safe and inclusive environment for students and staff and to encourage care, courtesy and respect for others. All persons have a legal right to protection from harassment under the Commonwealth Sex Discrimination Act and the Victorian Equal Opportunity Act.

If a student sees another person being harassed or bullied, they should tell the person that they witnessed the incident and advise them to report it to an appropriate person. However, if a friend is harassing another person, they should let them know that their behaviour is unacceptable. Bystanders who do nothing to stop bullying may be contributing to the problem by providing an audience for the bully.

Harassment is usually directed at a person because of their gender, race, creed or abilities. It can be subtle or explicit.

Subtle: (The most common)

They include:

- Offensive staring and leering.
- Unwanted comments about physical appearance and sexual preference.
- Racist or smutty comments or jokes.
- Questions about another's sexual activity.
- Persistent comments about a person's private life or family.
- Physical contact e.g., purposely brushing up against another's body
- Offensive name calling.

Explicit: (obvious)

They include:

- Grabbing, aggressive hitting, pinching and shoving etc.

- Unwelcome patting, touching, embracing.
- Repeated requests for dates, especially after refusal.
- Offensive gestures, jokes, comments, letters, phone calls or e-mail.
- Sexually and/or racially provocative remarks.
- Displays of sexually graphic material– pornography.
- Requests for sexual favours.

Extreme forms of sexual harassment will lead to criminal prosecution.

Bullying, including cyber bullying, is seen as a serious breach of the Student Wellbeing and Engagement Policy and will not be tolerated in any form. Students will be made aware of the provisions of the Racial and Religious Tolerance Act 2001 (which makes it unlawful for students to vilify other students on the grounds of race or religion), and the Charter of Human Rights.

We are proud to be an eSmart school. Our parents/carers and our students sign an Acceptable Use Policy where there is a common and agreed approach to the safe and smart use of mobile and non-mobile digital technologies. Students need to sign any devices in at the office each morning. Students do NOT access Facebook, Tik Tok, Snapchat or Instagram etc.. at school. There is a whole-school approach to behaviour management regarding expected student behaviours. Staff are guided to quick, sensitive, and consistent responses to negative behaviours of all kinds, including in the uses of technology to threaten or bully.
